School Matters!

Attend Today, Achieve Tomorrow

Well done to Italy, Spain, Namibia, Zimbabwe, Tibet and New Zealand classes for attendance of 98%

Antigua class please try and come to school every day.

96% and above: less than 7 absences a year — less than 30 hours of learning lost
 Excellent attendance! These young people will almost certainly get the best levels/grades they can, leading to better prospects for the future. Pupils also get into the habit of attending school which will help in the future.

90—95%: 10 days absence a year— from 50 hours of learning lost
 These pupils are less likely to achieve their target levels/grades and will start to find it difficult to maintain a habit of attending school regularly. Pupils who take a 2-week holiday every year can only achieve 95% attendance.

90% and below: 19 days absence a year— 95 hours of learning lost
 The government classes pupils in this group as "Persistent Absentees", and it will be almost impossible to keep up with their work and achieve their target levels/grades.

Term time leave:

Changes in the law mean that the headteacher no longer has the discretion to allow pupils to take term time leave.

If you take your child out of school for any reason you may receive a fine of £60 per child per parent if paid within 21 days. If this fine were not paid within the time limit, the penalty would rise to £120 and need to be paid within 28 days.

This means that each parent will be fined £60 for each child.

The government monitors school attendance and punctuality. They look at persistent absence and lateness. If your child has attendance of 90% or less they are deemed persistent absentees and we are asked to follow this up and refer to the local authority who could take you to court. At court, the penalty is either a very large fine of up to £2,500 or imprisonment.

Please avoid keeping your child off school unless they are very sick and certainly do not take them out of school when the school is open. Please wait until the holidays.
