Wednesday 20th December 2023

Dear Brampton Family,

Welcome to the December newsletter, the final one of 2023. We have come to the end of an amazing month, a great term and magnificent year.

The last couple of weeks have been incredible, filled with laughter, fun and the occasional moment of tension. Last week, the reception and year 1 children sang, danced and performed their way into our hearts, executing their version of the nativity to perfection. Judging by the beaming faces of the parents, carers and staff in attendance, it is fair to say the show was an overwhelming success.

On Monday this week, we were treated to another spectacular extravaganza: it was an absolute pleasure watching the children in our nursery and resourced provision perform a variety of Christmas carols along with actions. These shows demonstrate the range of skills and talents within our children, as well as highlighting how incredibly hard our staff work to ensure each child is valued and supported toward reaching their true potential.

Throughout the month of December, we have also been lucky enough to benefit from the rich and melodic voices of our choir – the dulcet sounds have regularly filled our playground and halls with joy. Our pride at watching them perform to parents, carers and staff was greatly extended when they went to perform at St John's Church for members of the public. A huge thank you must be extended to Mr Goodey for coaching and guiding our children to achieving such high standards.

The class end-of-year parties were hugely enjoyable and, much to the pleasure of staff, very well stocked: thank you to all the parents and carers, who made or provided food. The children certainly enjoyed themselves, with satisfaction, music and laughter buzzing throughout the school.

As you will no doubt be aware, Brampton Primary School was inspected by Ofsted last week, for the first time since 2011! The inspectors were very complimentary about our pupils' behaviour, manners and respect. They were also delighted that so many of you completed the parent survey and took the time to speak to them in the playground. Once we are sent the final report we will share the findings with all stakeholders, as well as publish it on our website. While we wait, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the parents and carers who were so overwhelmingly supportive throughout the process: your kind words and best wishes in the playground, as well as the emails you sent in and the lovely biscuits and treats you provided did not go unnoticed. We felt warmly appreciated – thank you.

Class teachers in their year groups, will be holding curriculum meetings on Thursday 4th January, which is the first day back. These presentations inform you on what your child will be learning next half term and provides you with an opportunity to ask any questions. Please note that the parent forum that was scheduled for the 16th January has been postponed until further notice.

WE HAVE ACHIEVED

Quality Mark
EARLY YEARS
AWARD

I trust that all parents and carers feel listened to and valued, though I would like to remind you all: please raise any questions or concerns immediately so we can address issues promptly and move forward together. You can approach the senior leadership team at the gates, or ask for an appointment via email or telephone. Whichever method of communication you use, a member of the senior leadership team will get back to you. We value all your feedback and in partnership we will reach our children's true potential: Building Personal Success.

For all of you setting up for Christmas, we wish you a wonderful celebration. To all that are getting ready to enjoy time at home with their families, we hope you have a fantastic holiday break. We wish everyone all the best for the New Year and look forward to welcoming you back in January.
